Las Vegas, NV May 15, 2017 – Spring 2017, multiple couples will make history by tying the knot in epic style! Introducing PopBliss by Racquel Kristi, the FIRST Luxury group Pop-up Wedding Celebration in Las Vegas. PopBliss is giving couples the opportunity to experience the soon-to-be biggest trend: a Pinterest-worthy luxury wedding without the months of planning, headaches, and arguing over seating charts.

Did you know that 50% of the world's population is under 30 years old? Unlimited access to information and culture has fragmented Millennials interests, unlike ever before. The power of social media has empowered them to be the most expressive and socially-curious generation in history, effectively throwing all that is old out of the window. In true pop-up style, the location, vendors, décor, food and all other details are wonderful, whimsical and unique - surprising the couples with the best wedding money can buy without the hefty price tag.

Taking place this May, up to 10 totally unconventional, ridiculously cool and radically different couples will embark on the first ever group pop-up wedding taking place in Las Vegas. A destination wedding that will bring couples and their friends and families from around the world into the city of endless possibilities and excitement for one majorly Instagram-worthy event. Couples will be taken care of in true Hollywood style with their very own bridal brunch, cocktail parties and live-streamed wedding attended by 300 guests and reaching 2,000 people. Before you walk down the aisle, renowned photographers will capture the love you have for each other and the excitement of your wedding day with the bright lights and hustling streets of Las Vegas as your backdrop! What an incredible memory!

This is a glamorous alternative, curated by pop-up wedding expert Racquel Kristi, to eloping or a trip to City Hall. Gone are the days where young couples are dropping fifty thousand dollars on a stale wedding that is exactly the same as their grandmothers. Millennials care more about the experience than the brand name. In an age where Millennials value unique experiences that align with their core values over lavish price-tags, PopBliss offers the solution so they can have their cake and travel the world too.

There are three different packages available for the PopBliss Pop-up wedding:

- $5,000 – Elopement Package
- $10,000 – All-Inclusive Package
- $25,000 – Premium Package

Additional information on each package can be found at www.PopBliss.co (www.PopBliss.co).
